

DEVELOPER ZED
Homes said this week Ashford people have backed its plans to create an environmentally sustainable community around Gasworks lane.

Over 75 per cent of those who submitted views backed the plans for 1,000 new homes, along with work space, retail and leisure facilities.

The developer has submitted its findings from the public consultation with its application for planning permission.

For more information go to www.zedhomes.com.

● What do you think about developments in Ashford? Write or email to the address on page 2.